

We've Extended the Ugly Chair Contest

Has your chair seen better days?

We know in these tough times that upgrading office furniture is not a top priority. However, if you cannot be productive in your desk chair, it may be the perfect time to get a new one.

We at Hoyle Office Solutions have seen some "interesting" chairs over the years. We'd like to find the area's ugliest chair!

The winner of the Ugliest Chair Contest will receive a NEW chair!

A picture is worth 1000 words, but...

A brief description of the chair's ugliness will be helpful in our contest. Ugliness can be based upon upholstery color, stains, wear and tear. You may also describe the functions of the chair, or the lack thereof. And the same may be said of the chair's style (or lack of).

Laughter is often the best medicine. Have fun, look around, and tell us about your ugliest chair! You never know, we might agree with you! If we do, then you'll be able to replace that UGLY chair!

Contest Rules:

- The photo of the chair submitted into this contest must be a chair that is currently in use in your office.
- Please e-mail the photo of your office's worst chair to: bkirschner@hoyleos.com.
- Photos should be submitted by September 15, 2009
- Please include person's name, company name, and contact information with each photo.
